JOB DESCRIPTION – TEACHER

Purpose:

To lead a range of learning opportunities for children with Special Educational Needs and contribute to high quality learning experiences. To work therapeutically, with a trauma informed approach, with a range of young people, supporting social, emotional and mental health strategies, development and progression.

Key Responsibilities:

We are looking for someone who truly understands young people and who can work within a trauma informed approach building strong relationships with children and accepting them for who they are. Key responsibilities of the role are:

- To foster children's social, emotional and mental health development in the fullest sense, paying particular regards to the attitudes and values promoted at Corfe Valley.
- To establish good personal relationships with the young people who attend.
- To engage young people with a range of activities such as animal care, art, cooking, woodwork, forest school, land management and more.
- To share in the general care of all resources and equipment.
- To have high expectations of the young people who attend.
- Ensure the environment is safe and clean.
- Assist with activity preparation by getting materials ready and setting up equipment.
- Contribute to pupil's weekly reports by using photographic and written evidence in line with our safeguarding policy.
- To understand the importance of confidentiality and safeguarding when working with vulnerable young people and their families. Ensure safeguarding procedures are followed and concerns are passed on to the safeguarding lead.
- To be part of a team that is focused, diligent, professional, confidential and working towards a supportive and progressive environment.

Professional Conduct:

Employees are expected to represent Corfe Valley in a positive, warm, calm and professional manner at all times by adhering to the Code of Conduct providing a welcoming environment to all young people, visitors and other professionals involved.

Other Duties:

Employees may be required to perform duties other than those given in the job description e.g Continued Professional Development, appraisals and Training. The particular duties and responsibilities may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and would not of themselves justify re-evaluation. In cases, however where a permanent and substantial change in duties and responsibilities occurs, consistent with a higher level of responsibility, then this would be eligible for re-evaluation.
